

Code of Conduct

All BADA members undertake to:

1. Maintain the highest standards of safety for the general public and all airshow participants putting that ahead of any other consideration.
2. Maintain the highest standards of integrity and personal conduct such as will bring credit to the airshow community.
3. Regularly review and update their personal knowledge of airshow industry laws, regulations, information, techniques and best practice, and at all times observe and comply with the same.
4. Abide by all applicable guidelines and promulgated BADA policies.
5. Provide to all persons truthful and accurate information and protect employees, customers, suppliers and the public against disinformation, unfair practices and fraud.
6. Negotiate honestly and fairly perform contractual obligations with and to other members of the airshow community.
7. Be available to and maintain communication with those to whom they have contractual obligations, and co-operate with airshow colleagues, suppliers and employees to provide the highest professional quality of service.
8. Subscribe to appropriate education, training and knowledge courses and encourage their staff also to become better qualified.
9. Maintain at all times records, logs and other documentary evidence as may be required by law and ensure that significant decisions, obligations and contracts are properly committed to writing.
10. Encourage by example adherence to this Code by all members of the airshow community.
11. Strive for excellence in all aspects of the air show industry and attempt to eliminate all practices that discredit the air show community, wherever they may occur.
12. Bring any safety issues that compromise the safety of flying displays to the attention of the relevant agency.
